You may need a valuation to manage a commercial situation or for many other reasons, such as :-

- Partner buy-in to a business
- Partner selling out of a business
- Business planning, Estate planning & Succession planning (i.e understanding the true value of your assets to help with decision making)
- Divorce, marital or similar dispute negotiation
- Finance applications and planning
- Insurance & risk management
- Readiness for sale (to help with setting clear expectations with an agent)

All of our team development services are properly scoped & priced according to client needs.

Scope, delivery timing & price will be agreed before you make any commitment to proceed
